ORAL HISTORY FOR GENEALOGY

Tuesday, August 22nd at 10am

Dr. Linda Ryan will discuss how to utilize oral history in genealogy research. Interviewing family members is an excellent way to begin collecting family history information. This presentation will help you prepare for an interview, provide tips on conducting the interview and how to interact with the interviewee, and ideas about what to do with the interview after it is recorded.

COMMUNICATION WITH ALZHEIMER'S PATIENTS

Thursday, August 10th at 2pm

Communication is more than just talking and listening – it's also about sending and receiving messages through attitude, tone of voice, facial expressions and body language. Join us to explore how communication takes place when someone has Alzheimer's, learn to decode the verbal and behavioral messages delivered by someone with dementia, and identify strategies to help you connect and communicate at each stage of the disease. Please RSVP to (217) 726-5184

STAFF PICKS

Diane: Since We Fell by Dennis Lehane "A mystery about a television news reporter who loses her job after suffering an on air panic attack and is cared for by her husband. She accidentally stumbles onto a situation that reveals he may not be who she thought he was. Many twists and turns and surprises, full of suspense and romance."

Heidi: Forty Autumns by Nina Wilner "This book tells the true story of a family caught on both sides of the Berlin Wall. The author's mother makes a daring escape to the West, and both her adventure and her family's experience in the East unfold in an amazing story."

Sarah: The Year of the Runaways by Sunjeev Sahota "This book opened my eyes to the reality of Indian migrants living in Britain--beautifully written and shortlisted for the Man Booker Prize."
