Humanities Film Series

Thursday, February 16th
at 6:30pm

In partnership with MacMurray College, we present the third annual Humanities Film Series. This year's theme is "Perspectives on Power and Responsibility." Join Dr. Ashley Green from Lincoln Land Community College on Thursday, February 16th at 6:30pm for a screening of the Oliver Stone film Snowden, the biographical thriller about the man who released thousands of classified documents about the widespread civilian surveillance being carried out by the United States government after 9/11. A discussion about the film and Snowden's decisions will follow the film

February Books Clubs

The next meeting of the Community Book Club will be on Thursday, February 23rd at 7pm. The discussion will be about Death Comes for the Archbishop by Willa Cather. Books can be checked out from the library or purchased at Our Town Books on the square.

The Jacksonville Area Senior Center Book Club will meet on Tuesday, February 14, 11:00am, at the Community Park Building (1309 S. Main St.). Outreach Librarian Diane Hollendonner will lead the discussion on "Valentines and Romance" in observance of Valentine's Day. We'll talk about the history of sending Valentines as well as famous romantic couples. Participants are encouraged to bring an item or story to share.

Friday, February 10th
2:30-4:30pm

Kid's Corner

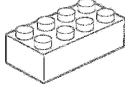

The second Friday of each month kids are invited to the library to give their imaginations a workout. Each month kids create amazing Lego structures. February's theme is The Aliens are Invading and We Need You to Build a Robot to Combat Them! Each creation is put on display in the Children's Department for all library patrons to enjoy. Kids of all ages are welcome to participate!
