UNLOCK THE MYSTERIES OF TEA

Thursday, March 23rd at 6:30pm.

Enjoy samples and explore the mysteries of tea with Troy and Lisa from The Taylor Mercantile. Learn about the history of tea and unravel the many myths and misconceptions that surround this ancient drink. Troy and Lisa will demonstrate how to best prepare tea, teach differences between various kinds of tea, and why you'll want to make it your alternative hot drink.

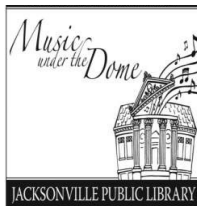

DOLLAR-A-DAY BOYS WITH BILL JAMERSON

Saturday, April 1st at 2 pm

Michigan based author Bill Jamerson will present a music and storytelling program about the Civilian Conservation Corps at the Jacksonville Public Library. The program is co-sponsored by the Morgan County Historical Society. Jamerson's hour-long program includes stories, showing a video clip from his PBS film, reading excerpts from his novel and singing original songs with his guitar.

MUSIC UNDER THE DOME

Sunday, March 5th at 4pm

The Illinois College Women's Chorale is an advanced group of singers who perform music of all eras. The Illinois College Chamber Singers are an elite group of highly skilled singers with a focus on vocal excellence. Both groups perform widely for campus and community events and are sought after for performances near and far.

You can find the full schedule of upcoming Music Under the Dome concerts on our website, www.jaxpl.org. All concerts are free and open to the public.

Kid's Corner

Science Story Time

March 22nd at 10am & 3pm

This month in Science Story Time we will learn about friction. The experiment will be racing cars down ramps covered in different material. Which do you think will make the car go the fastest? The slowest? Find out!
