

HAPPENINGS...

JACKSONVILLE PUBLIC LIBRARY, OCTOBER 2017

FAFSA WORKSHOP

Tuesday, October 31st
Drop in 5-8pm

A student loan expert from the Illinois Student Assistance Commission will be on hand to answer questions or assist students and parents with filling out FAFSA applications.

If you would like to fill out the FAFSA application please bring your 2016 W2 form. The library will have a laptop available, but please bring a personal laptop if possible.

Kid's Corner

SCARECROW SHOWDOWN

It is time for the Scarecrow Showdown! Pick up your registration form at the Children's Desk. We have wooden frames and newspapers to stuff your scarecrow and we can even help you with assembly!

Deliver it anytime between October 9th-14th. Judging will take place on Monday, October 16th. Have fun and be creative!

STAFF PICKS

Check the newsletter each month for new staff recommendations!

Diane: My Cousin Rachel by Daphne du Maurier: "An historical mystery with compelling characters and an intriguing plot about the incredibly destructive power of love without trust that is governed by jealousy."

Heidi: "The Secret Place" by Tana French, audio book: "Different narrators read this mystery set at a girls' boarding school in Dublin, Ireland. French's skill at writing vivid and authentic dialog immerse you in this compelling story."

Sarah: If the Creek Don't Rise by Leah Weiss: "This is a gripping novel that takes place in Appalachia about the inner strength needed to fight your demons."

COMMUNITY BOOK CLUB

Thursday, October 26th
at 7pm

Join a lively discussion of the best selling Being

Mortal: Medicine and What Matters in the End by Atul Gawande.

The Community Book Club meets the last Thursday of each month. Books can be checked out from the library or purchased from Our Town Books on the square.
