

HAPPENINGS...

JACKSONVILLE PUBLIC LIBRARY, APRIL 2017

SOCIAL SECURITY Q&A

Wednesday, April
19th at 2pm

Jack Myers from the Social Security Administration will be at the library to answer your questions about Social Security benefits, the best ways to protect your personal information and assist those wishing to create an online Social Security account.

KID'S GARDEN CLUB

Tuesdays at 9:30am

Kids of all ages are invited to join the library's garden club. Each Tuesday at 9:30am, kids will learn how to plant seeds, how plants grow, what bugs do and help to tend the library's garden. By the end of summer, there will be flowers and vegetables for everyone to enjoy!

MUSIC UNDER THE DOME CONCERTS

Sunday, April
2nd at 4pm

For over forty years, local favorite Ken Bradbury has been performing across the Midwest landscape, bringing the sounds of America's rich cultural heritage to life. From schoolhouses to international conventions, Ken's piano stylings have delighted audiences for decades.

For a complete list of all this year's performers please visit our website, www.jaxpl.org.

STAFF PICKS

Check the newsletter each month for new staff recommendations!

Diane: I Shouldn't Even Be Doing This: and Other Things That Strike Me as Funny by Bob Newhart "He gives a very entertaining overview of his career and includes all his best comedy bits from his hit comedic albums. It's hilarious."

Heidi: Little Heathens: Hard Times and High Spirits on an Iowa Farm During the Great Depression by Mildred Armstrong Kalish "This childhood memoir is an honest and charming story that describes hard work, family relationships, and the ups and downs of farm life in a very difficult time."

Hillary: The Leftovers by Tom Perrotta "An addictive novel about what follows the Rapture when it happens quite differently than Christians are expecting."

Sarah: All Our Wrong Todays by Elan Mastai "This book is sort of Outlander meets Back to the Future with beautiful writing that is entertaining and funny."

Sunday,
April 23rd
at 4pm

Anna and Bethany Ferraro are Jacksonville natives who own and operate Ferraro Music Studio. Anna is a classically trained pianist and Bethany a classically trained violinist. Together they will perform an engaging program of classical music.
